Executive summary

This document contains the description of the ERMES project brochures and leaflets created during the projects' lifespan to help disseminating ERMES main results and achievements.

The brochures were developed by CNR-IREA, DEMETER and UJI, and adapted to the three case study areas by the different ERMES partners. They were uploaded to the ERMES website, from which they can be downloaded.

1 Introduction

Several brochures, leaflets and dissemination materials were produced by different ERMES partners during the projects' lifespan to facilitate dissemination of its main results and achievements towards end-users. Those materials were used during ERMES meetings with end-users to facilitate the interaction. They were uploaded on the projects website, from which they can be easily downloaded and visualized. We therefore don't repeat here their content.

This document provides a list of the main documents produced, and their links.
